Heldenfels Enterprises President Receives Distinguished Alumnus Award

Fred W. Heldenfels IV, President/CEO, HEI, Inc.

Fred W. Heldenfels IV, President/CEO of Heldenfels Enterprises, Inc. was one of the twelve Texas A&M University Distinguished Alumni recipients at the 2015 Distinguished Alumni Gala which was held Oct. 2 in Reed Arena.

The Distinguished Alumnus Award is the highest honor bestowed upon a former student of Texas A&M University, awarded since 1962 to fewer than 250 of Texas A&M's 425,000 former students. Presented jointly by the university and The Association of Former Students, this award recognizes Aggies who have achieved excellence in their chosen professions and made meaningful contributions to Texas A&M University and their local communities.

"Fred Heldenfels has taken our core values and applied each and every one of them in his career, his family, his service to country, state and school, and in every area of his personal life. His selfless service is, indeed, a model for all Aggies." - Sam Torn '70, Past Chair, 12th Man Foundation

Fred's Aggie family includes brothers Ken '82 and Gil '85, father Fred III '56, grandfather Fred Jr. '33 (also a Distinguished Alumnus) and great-grandfather Fred W. "Fritz" Sr. , Class of 1909. Frederick and wife Elizabeth Pfaff Heldenfels '79 have three children, including Amy Heldenfels Jerke '05 and Holly Heldenfels '09, and two grandchildren.

Heldenfels Enterprises Inc. is a leading manufacturer of precast/prestressed concrete structures serving the highway and bridge, commercial, marine/industrial and sports facility construction markets. The company operates plants in San Marcos, Corpus Christi and El Paso, Texas.
